Sincronización bidireccional con ORCID

Ahorro de tiempo a los investigadores y garantía de la integridad de los datos

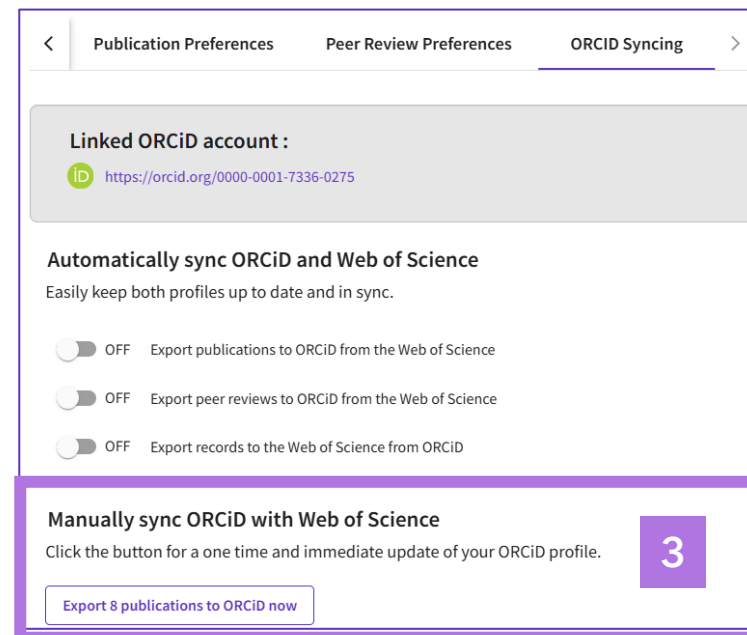

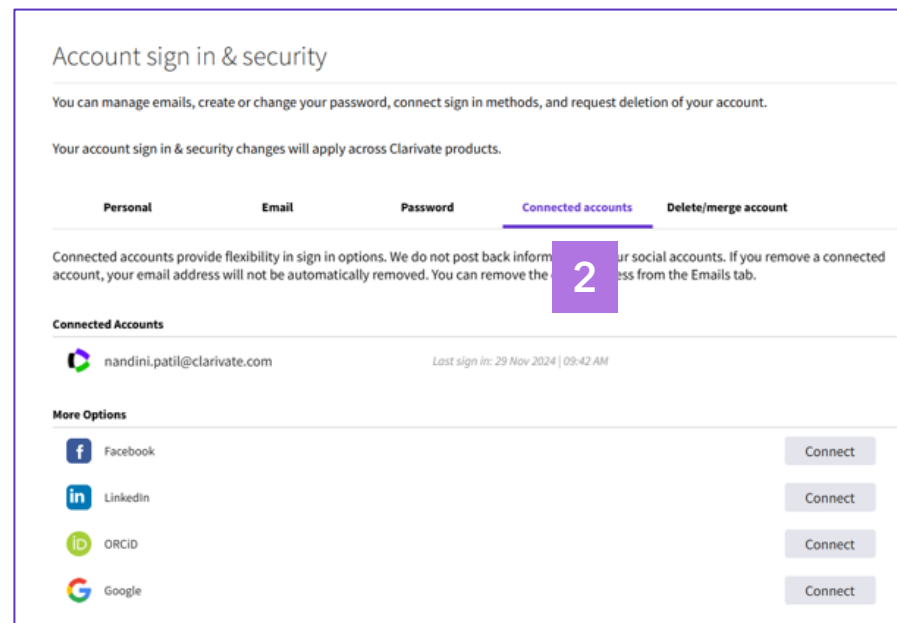

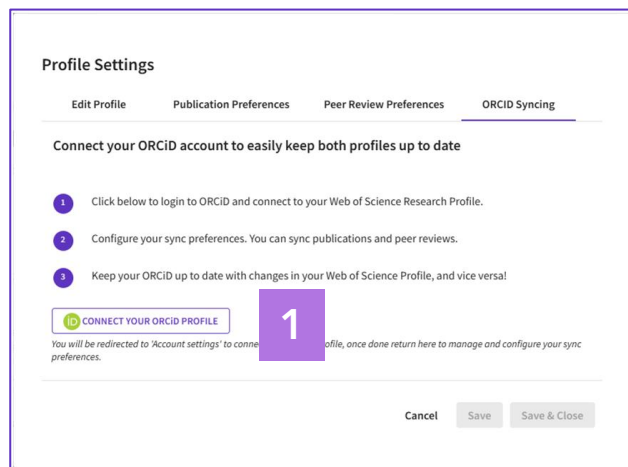

Only works for "Journal article" document type in ORCID. It does not work for books, proceedings or other types.

Vinculando a tu perfil de ORCID

Opción 1 - Importar tus publicaciones desde ORCID en cualquier momento

1. From "Profile Settings", open the ORCID Syncing tab and click "Connect Your ORCID Profile"
2. From account settings, connect your Web of Science account by entering your ORCID credentials.
3. Once your Web of Science Profile is connected to you ORCID account, you can manually import your papers.
4. The newly added publications will then be verified for the authorship on the paper, before they get displayed on the public profile page. However, you can always see them on your private dashboard page tagged as "Verification in progress". Authorship verification process takes 3-5 days. These claimed papers will be visible in the profile after verification is completed.

Opción 2 - Sincronizar tus perfiles de Web of Science y ORCID

Connect & sync: ORCID (video)

1. From "Profile Settings", open the ORCID Syncing tab and click "Connect Your ORCID Profile"
  2. From account settings, connect your Web of Science account by entering your ORCID credentials.
  3. Once your Web of Science Profile is connected to you ORCID account, you can manage syncing
    - You can decide level and direction of synchronization
    - Publications are sent immediately
    - Peer reviews are sent daily
    - ORCID and ResearcherID displayed as links on respective profiles.
- Note - Having multiple ORCID's connected to a single Researcher Profile can create discrepancies for data syncing between WoS and ORCID. We encourage users to keep only one of their ORCID's connected to their Researcher Profile
